DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Monthly Statistics Report (in packets)

Director Klein talked about the upcoming COGIC Convention October 31- November 7. COGIC is having courtesy drivers transport passengers during the upcoming convention, and they are supplying official placards on all vehicles and badges on drivers to identify these courtesy drivers. Courtesy drivers supplied by COGIC are not to accept any form of payment for this transportation service, it is against COGIC policy. CVC volunteers will be at the airport as people for the Convention arrive explaining these services and policies for COGIC. If anyone violates this policy they will be cited by officers and Taxicab Commission Agents.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Commissioner Reeves gave a quick overview of the financial report for September 30, 2011. We continue to show a strong equity position and cash position. Revenue and expenses for September shows a positive $11, 894.00, which was a little under budget for September, year to date shows $78,811.00 which is tracking above budget.
